Grounds for and purpose of data processing Traficom and the Finnish Transport Infrastructure Agency have acquired consulting work together with the objective of creating a proposal of how C-ITS services should be implemented in Finland and what the roles of the authorities, in particular, in the implementation of the services and the required infrastructure as well as in monitoring C-ITS services and C-ITS units should be. As part of the work, a consultant will be interviewing the clients' experts and external experts. According to section 2, subsection 1, paragraph 6 of the Act on the Finnish Transport and Communications Agency, the Finnish Transport and Communications Agency promotes digitalisation and automation in transport and communications and their markets and enables pilots, research and innovations concerning transport and communications. According to section 2, subsection 1, paragraph 1 of the Act on the Finnish Transport Infrastructure Agency, the Finnish Transport Infrastructure Agency is in charge of the state road network it manages and its development as well as the harmonisation of the related operations throughout the country. It also promotes the digitalisation and automation of transport services and the transport system according to paragraph 4. According to section 3, subsection 1, paragraph 5; section 4, subsection 1; section 10 and section 11 of the Act on the Transport System and Highways, the Finnish Transport Infrastructure Agency is the road infrastructure manager responsible for the highway network. According to section 136, subsection 1 of the Act on Transport Services, the Finnish Transport Infrastructure Agency is, in the capacity of road infrastructure manager, responsible for organising traffic control and management services for the road network under its management as required by the transport services operated on the road network and ensure the quality and fairness of traffic control and management services. The processing of personal data related to the interviews is based on Article 6(1)(e) of the General Data Protection Regulation and section 4, subsection 1, paragraph 2 of the Data Protection Act, which specifies the aforementioned, according to which the processing of personal data is lawful when it is proportionate and necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest.
