Grounds for and purpose of the data processing Traficom's service area Digital Connections processes the personal data of representatives of stakeholders included in the stakeholder register insofar as these persons are members of one of Traficom's stakeholders. The personal data is processed for the purpose of managing relations with stakeholder representatives and engaging in cooperation related to Traficom's statutory duties. Primary purpose: management of stakeholder relations. Forms of cooperation include working groups established and events organised by Traficom and other communications, for which Traficom maintains contact and other information on stakeholders. The basis for the personal data processing is the controller's performance of its statutory duties and tasks carried out in the public interest. Traficom has a duty to produce and share information. As such, the grounds for the processing are public interest based on the controller's obligation to provide information about current events in the transport and communications sectors, which are part of its field of competence. Furthermore, the Act on Electronic Communications Services lays down provisions on Traficom's duties and special tasks. (Articles 6(1)(c) and 6(1)(e) of the EU General Data Protection Regulation.)

Data content
The data undergoing processing	We process the names and contact details (such as organisation, email address or phone number) of persons who are part of stakeholders and, if necessary, data describing the person's position or duties (such as title or role).
Sources of the processed data (where data is received from)	The data is received primarily from Traficom's representatives in stakeholder organisations and from information that Traficom collects as part of its operations as a public authority. Data can also be received from persons themselves or the representatives of stakeholders (as a result of a company's contact person naming participants, for example). Data can also be obtained from public sources.

Storage period of personal data	Personal data concerning stakeholders is stored for the purpose of processing for the duration of stakeholder membership or for as long as processing is necessary. Outdated data is deleted.

Data processing
Recipients and categories of recipients of personal data (to whom personal data is disclosed)	As a rule, personal data is not disclosed to third parties. As a public authority, Traficom's activities are subject to the Act on the Openness of Government Activities (621/1999).
Processing of personal data on behalf of the controller	The personal data is processed primarily only by Traficom. Traficom may use partners in the personal data processing, in which case the processing is agreed upon in accordance with data protection legislation.
Transfer of personal data to third countries outside the EU/EEA	The data will not be transferred outside the EU/EEA.
Automated decision-making and profiling	Traficom does not use automated decision-making or profiling in this context.

Rights related to the processing of personal data
About exercising rights You can exercise your rights by submitting a request to Traficom via email or post to the addresses provided under the 'Controller's contact details' section of this privacy statement or to the sender of a meeting invitation (or other communication). If you submit the request to someone other than the sender, please specify the event accurately. The right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority If you believe that your personal data is being processed in violation of legislation, you may lodge a complaint with the Office of the Data Protection Ombudsman. Office of the Data Protection Ombudsman PO Box 800, FI-00531 Helsinki, Finland tietosuoja(at)om.fi tel. +358 29 566 6700
Right of access	The data subject has the right to obtain from the controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning him or her is being processed. If processing takes place, the data subject has the right to access the personal data.

Right to rectification	The data subject has the right to obtain from the controller without undue delay the rectification of inaccurate or incorrect personal data.
Right to object	In situations where the processing of personal data is based on public interest, the exercise of official authority vested in the controller or the legitimate interest of the controller or a third party, the data subject has the right to object to the processing of personal data concerning him or her. If a data subject uses his or her right to object, the controller must stop the processing of their personal data, unless the controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject, or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. If the personal data is processed for direct marketing purposes, the data subject has the right to object to the processing without any specific grounds. In situations where personal data is processed for statistical or research purposes, the data subject may object to the processing on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, in response to which the controller must stop processing the data subject's data, unless the processing is necessary for performing a task carried out for reasons of public interest.
Right to restriction of processing	The data subject has the right to obtain from the controller restriction of processing if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the data subject contests the accuracy of the personal data - the processing is unlawful, but the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of its use instead - the controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but it is required by the data subject for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims - the data subject has objected to the processing of the personal data pending the verification of whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the data subject.
Right to data portability	The data subject has the right to receive the personal data concerning him or her, which he or she has provided to the controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from the controller to which the personal data have been provided, where the processing is based on consent or on a contract and the processing is carried out by automated means. At Traficom, personal data is most often processed for the purpose of carrying out the statutory tasks of an authority, in which case the data subject does not have the right to data portability, unless separately provided by law.

25 January 2023

Right to erasure	In situations where the legal basis for the processing of personal data is something other than compliance with a legal obligation, the data subject has the right to obtain from the controller the erasure of personal data concerning him or her. The requested data will be erased unless the controller has a legal basis for refusing to erase the data, such as a legal obligation to retain the data.
Right to withdraw consent	Insofar as personal data is processed on the basis of the consent of the data subject, the data subject may withdraw his or her consent at any time by notifying the controller of the withdrawal. Withdrawing consent will not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out on the basis of the consent of the data subject before its withdrawal.
